Contact Information

US Office:
Study Abroad Office
University of South Carolina
1705 College St.
Close-Hipp, Suite 453
Columbia, SC 29208
Telephone: (803) 777-7557
Email: studyabroad@sc.edu

Greece Office:
Melathon
Mycenaean Foundation
Mycenae
PO Box 122
Argolida 21200, Greece
Telephone: (+30) 27510-76704
Email: info@acamycenae.org
mycenaeanfoundation@gmail.com

For more information, visit www.sc.edu/studyabroad or www.acamycenae.org

AMERICAN CENTER
FOR ARCHAEOLOGY
AT MYCENAE
Summer 2019
Study Abroad in Greece
Application Deadline: Mar 15, 2019
About the Program
The American Center for Archaeology at Mycenae is a partnership between the Mycenaean Foundation, a non-profit archaeological organization, and the University of South Carolina, a leader in global education with a top-ranked Honors College. Undergraduate students from colleges and universities in the United States and around the world will take courses about archaeology, art, history, cultural heritage, and more.

The Center is located at the legendary site of ancient Mycenae, Greece and the nearby town of Nafplion. It has a state-of-the-art outdoor excavation simulator and an open-air theatrical area.

The American Center for Archaeology at Mycenae aims to become a leading international program for education and practical training, research, scholarly publications, and international conferences.

Summer 2019 Courses
- Archaeological Field Trips
- Field Archaeology
- Digital Applications in Archaeology
- Prehistoric Aegean Art and Archaeology
- Cultural Geology
- Geological Oceanography
- Introduction to the Environment
- Imperial Sustainability
- Ancient Greek Tragedy: from Text to Stage
- Landscape Drawing & Painting
- The Survival of Antiquity in the Italian Renaissance

Full course descriptions can be found at: www.acamycenea.org

Frequently Asked Questions
1. When does the program take place?
   Maymester: May 12-31, 2019
   Summer session: July 1 - Aug. 1, 2019

2. What is the total program cost?
   Participation costs $4,500 (Maymester), to $5,100 (summer session), which includes tuition fees for one course (students may enroll in a second course at an additional fee of $500-$1,000), housing at Nafplion or Argos, local transportation, excursions, special events, administrative fees. Personal travel or incidental expenses are not covered.

3. Are there scholarships?
   For USC and national scholarships for study abroad, visit www.sc.edu/studyabroad/scholarships.

4. What makes this program unique?
   The program at A.C.A.M. combines theory students learn in class with hands-on experience. Courses in archaeology, anthropology, classics, art, history, and cultural heritage are offered. In addition, students participate in faculty-led trips to various cities and archaeological sites and museums.